My Plan for Christian Spiritual Growth

Your plan will help you to decide what comes next – What areas of your life do you feel God calling you to work on and how are you going to do it?

When we fail to plan, we plan to fail in our pursuit to reach for the Hem and connect with the Living God.

My Spiritual Goals:

For your goals, think about things God has put on your heart that He is calling you to to change. Habits, emotions or thoughts that you need to overcome. Aspects of your walk with Him that He wants to deepen. Start off with just 3-5 goals so that you do not feel overwhelmed.

Examples:

Lord, I want to be free from depression and filled with Your joy.

Father, I want to experience Your presence abiding with me every day.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

My Commitment to Change!

Right out your gameplan for how you are going to meet your goals. What things are you going to commit to doing and how often re you going to do them?

Make a special commitment to the Lord that you are going to seek Him with your whole heart!

Examples:

“Father, I will do a Bible study on the word 'joy' so Your Word can renew my mind from depression”. (Weekly)

“Lord, I will use a prayer journal to write to you and write down things you speak to me”. (Daily)

My Commitments to Myself and to My Lord...	Daily	Weekly	Monthly	Yearly

My Prayer

Finish this promise prayer to the Lord. Ask Him to help you and hold you accountable to do the things that you feel He is telling you to do. Then, believe that when you follow through on those things you will see a difference in yourself and in your life.

* * *

Lord, I ask that Your Holy Spirit will put me in remembrance of this commitment that I make to you this day. I ask that You will be my strength as I fight to overcome the bad habit of not seeking you as often and as deeply as I know that I should.
